

Programme for the Building Children's Nursing for Africa conference: Foundations of Evidence

Wednesday 22 April: Evidence for improving practice: incorporating different approaches

09:00 – 11:00	SESSION ONE: Finding voice through evidence. The challenges and successes of implementing evidence-based practice Chairs: Sandra Roodt & Minette Coetzee
Venue	Seminar Rooms 2 & 3
09:00 – 09:30	Welcome from conference hosts Minette Coetzee and Sandra Roodt Welcome on behalf of the children Tarique Kenny Welcome from the Faculty of Health Sciences Denver Hendricks Musical introduction Isaac and Lily van der Merwe
09:30 – 10:00	Felt or enacted criticism theory - a contribution to the understanding of parents' decision making in acute childhood illness at home Sarah Neill
10:00 – 10:30	Health service design Karen Hermanus
10:30 – 11:00	Making a change in practice: sharing lessons learned Clare Davis
11:00 – 11:30	REFRESHMENTS (In the foyer)
11:30 – 13:00	SESSSION TWO: Finding the voice of children's nurses Chair: Inger Hendry
Venue	Seminar Rooms 2 & 3
11:30 – 13:00	Listening for Nursing's voice Una Kyriacos 'You are a nurse...what do you have to say?' - an invitation Minette Coetzee
13:00 – 14:00	LUNCH (Seminar Room 1)
14:00 – 16:30	SESSION THREE
	Implementing "Zero Separation" Chairs: Minette Coetzee & Gail Davel	Implementing facility-wide programs Chairs: Inger Hendry & Sandra Roodt	Implementing bundled approaches to care Chairs: Hilary Barlow & Christal Bastian
Venue	Seminar Room 3	Seminar Room 2	Site Office
14:00 – 14:10	Introduction	Introduction	Introduction
14:10 – 14:30	How decreasing maternal separation prior to surgery affects physiological stability in infants and small children. A randomised control trial Lydia Ssenyonga	Implementing a facility-wide breastfeeding program at a paediatric hospital: The 'Breastfeeding is Best' project Angela Leonard	The Best Care...Always! CLABSI bundle: Reducing central line associated bloodstream infections in a public sector NICU Arina Jenkins
14:30 – 14:50	Registered nurses experiences on family involvement in the care of hospitalised children at Queen Elizabeth Central Hospital, Malawi Patrick Phiri	Nurses' and midwives' self-reporting of handwashing compliance while caring for newborn babies in Rwamagana Health Facilities, Rwanda Philomene Uwimana	The process of addressing surgical site infection by using a bundle approach at Red Cross War Memorial Children's Hospital Heide Kunzmann
14:50 – 15:20	REFRESHMENTS (In the foyer)
15:20 – 16:30	Group session: Facilitated discussion exploring the challenges and advantages of implementing "Zero Separation". Panel: Sanel Viljoen, Revona Goosen, Lydia Ssenyonga & Patrick Phiri	Group session: Facilitated discussion exploring the challenges and advantages of implementing facility-wide programs. Panel: Edina Kholowa ,Tracy-Ann Castle, Angela Leonard & Philomene Uwimana	Group session: Facilitated discussion exploring the challenges and advantages of implementing bundled approaches to care. Panel: Galiema Haroun, Margo Joseph, Arina Jenkins & Heide Kunzmann
19:00 onwards	CONFERENCE DINNER at the Two Oceans Aquarium, V&A Waterfront

Thursday 23 April: Evidence-based care requires listening to service users

08:30 – 10:30	SESSION FOUR: Finding and working with the voices of parents	Chair: Gail Davel
Venue	Seminar Rooms 2 & 3
08:30 – 08:40	Welcome and introduction Angela Leonard & Gail Davel
08:40 – 09:20	Collaborative research with parents: Working together to get it right! Sarah Neill
09:20 – 09:50	Co-design of a manual for technology-dependent children Jane Booth
09:50 – 10:10	Child health promotion and protective health care: teenage mothers experiences in the childhood daily care Débora Falleiros de Mello
10:10 – 10:30	A parent's perspective Sharon Kloppers
10:30 – 10:50	Opportunity for questions
10:50 – 11:30	REFRESHMENTS (In the foyer)
11:30 – 12:30	SESSION FIVE: Finding and working with the voices of adolescents	Chairs: Zanele Nxumalo and Nosipho Lingani
Venue	Seminar Rooms 2 & 3
11:30 – 12:10	Adolescents' perspectives Stephanie Sieberhagen and adolescent team
12:10 – 12:30	Adolescent transition - What now? Lesley Hoogervorst
12:30 – 13:30	SESSION SIX: Poster presentations	Chair: Candice Bonaconsa
Venue	At the back of the main conference venue (Seminar Room 2)
12:30 – 12:40	Introduction to poster presentations and collection of poster questionnaires in the foyer
12:40 – 13:30	Neonatal nursing clinical competencies for Nurse-Midwife Technicians (NMTs) in CHAM colleges, Malawi Ellemes Phuma-Ngaiyaye
	Changing the practice of 'Chinese Whispers': an action research approach to optimise the PICU nursing shift handover Clare Davis
	Towards resuscitation readiness in a Paediatric Emergency unit Zanele Nxumalo
	Training neonatal nurses at the University of Cape Town, using an approach aligned with global strategies Hilary Barlow
	"And what about the friends?" Tools for working in collaborative partnership Pamela Hansford Hypernatraemia secondary to sodium polystyrene sulfonate (kayexalate) in a child on haemodialysis Ethel Abbott
13:30 – 14:30	LUNCH (Seminar Room 1)
14:30 – 16:30	SESSION SEVEN: Healthcare improvement by participative design
Venue	Seminar Rooms 2 & 3
14:30 – 15:15	Group session: Health Improvement by Design Facilitators: Minette Coetzee, Natasha North & Stephanie Sieberhagen
15:15 – 15:45	REFRESHMENTS (In the foyer)
15:45 – 16:30	Group session: Health Improvement by Design continued Facilitators: Minette Coetzee, Natasha North & Stephanie Sieberhagen

Friday 24 April: Issues around best evidence for best practice in teaching and learning

08:30 – 10:30	SESSION EIGHT: Designing learning encounters for children’s nurses		Chair: Jane Booth
Venue	Seminar Rooms 2 & 3
08:30 – 08:50	Welcome and introduction Angela Leonard & Jane Booth
08:50 – 09:20	Learning to work with children in the context of engaged relationships Pamela Hansford & Minette Coetzee
09:20 – 09:50	Faculty involvement in child health nursing practice: An approach for Kamuzu College of Nursing and Queen Elizabeth Central Hospital Maureen Majamanda
09:50 – 10:20	Development of the first paediatric nursing programme in Zambia Priscar Mukonka & Eric Chisupa
10:20 – 10:30	Opportunity for questions
10:30 – 11:00	REFRESHMENTS (In the foyer)
11:00 - 12:10	SESSION NINE: Teaching and learning tools for best practice
	Stream A Chair: Barryan Ludick & Clare Davis	Stream B Chairs: Inger Hendry
Venue	Seminar Room 3	Seminar Room 2
11:00 – 11:10	Introduction		Introduction
11:10 – 11:30	Development of clinical competency-based assessment tool for neonatal nursing, for Nurse-Midwife Technicians in Malawi Ellemes Phuma-Ngaiyaye		Alarm bells, peeps and Tula Tula: PICU parent group identifies enabling strategies to transcend ICU barriers Kerry Brown
11:30 – 11:50	Improved efficiency in documentation of care in emergency care Zanele Nxumalo		Evaluating nurses’ knowledge of pain management in children admitted to the paediatric department of Queen Elizabeth Central Hospital (QECH) Edina Kholowa
11:50 – 12:10	An action research study into the content of the PICU bedside nursing handover Clare Davis		A review of the literature in health assessment training in nursing programs Lauren Rees
12:10 – 13:00	SESSION TEN
Venue	Seminar Rooms 2 & 3
12:10 – 13:00	Conference closing ceremony Minette Coetzee & Sandra Roodt
13:00 onwards	LUNCH (Seminar Room 1)		