Led by the Child Nurse Practice Development Initiative, in collaboration with Red Cross War Memorial Children's Hospital

A green rectangular banner with a white border. On the left, there is a simple line drawing of a girl with pigtails, wearing a blue dress and holding a string. On the right, there is a drawing of an open book with handwritten text on the pages, and a kite flying on a string above it. The text is centered and uses a mix of bold and regular fonts.
