

School Of Public Health and Family Medicine

Research Day

Thursday, 18 September 2014
Venue: Wolfson Lecture Theatre, IDM

Welcome and opening

9.30 – 9.45: Welcome

Session 1: Chairs: Professor L. London, A/Professor J. Harries

9.45 – 10.00: Qualitative Evidence Synthesis in Global Public Health Policymaking: Views from Inside and Outside the Field

Presenter: Christopher Colvin [Division of Social & Behavioural Sciences]

10.00 – 10.15: Feasibility pilot study assessing women's ability to self-assess eligibility for early medical abortion using m-Health

Presenter: Mariette Momberg [Women's Health Research Unit]

10.15 – 10.30: Youth living with HIV

Presenter: Diane Cooper [Women's Health Research Unit]

10.30 – 10.45: Language and access to health care

Presenters: Marion Heap & Hanne Haricharan [Health & Human Rights Programme, Division of Public Health Medicine]

10.45 – 11.00: Implementing intimate partner violence care in a rural sub-district

Presenter: Kate Rees [Division of Public Health Medicine]

11.00 – 11.30 Tea

Session 2: Chairs: Dr E. Sinanovic, A/Professor A. Boule

11.30 – 11.45: The costs of novel TB diagnostics during scale-up: evidence from the roll-out of Xpert MTB/RIF in South Africa

Presenter: Lucy Cunnamo [Health Economics Unit]

11.45 – 12.00: Understanding determinants of socioeconomic inequality in adult obesity prevalence in South Africa overtime: a concentration index decomposition approach

Presenter: Olufunke Alaba [Health Economics Unit]

12.00 – 12.15: Effect of adjustment for treatment and seasonality in trends in blood pressure

Presenter: Annibale Cois [Division of Epidemiology & Biostatistics]

12.15 – 12.30: Trust and motivation in the health sector: a systematic review

Presenter: Dickson Okello [Division of Health Policy & Systems]

12.30 – 12.45: Public private partnerships in the Cameroonian health system: A case study of staff secondment into the Maroua–Mokolo Diocese

Presenter: Jacob Kuh [Division of Health Policy & Systems]

12.45 – 14.00 Lunch served in Wolfson Pavillion

Session 3: Chairs: A/Professor L. Myer, A/Prof A. Dalvie

14.00 – 14.15: A group randomised intervention study to reduce flour dust exposure in supermarket bakeries

Presenter: Mohamed Jeebhay [Centre for Environmental & Occupational Health Research]

14.15 - 14.30: Asthma associated with pesticide exposure among women in rural Western Cape

Presenter: Aqiel Dalvie [Centre for Environmental & Occupational Health Research]

14.30 – 14.45: Treatment outcomes of infants on antiretroviral therapy

Presenter: Mireille Porter [Centre for Infectious Diseases Epidemiology & Research]

14.45– 15.00: Aging and adult outcomes on antiretroviral therapy

Presenter: Morna Cornell [Centre for Infectious Diseases Epidemiology & Research]

15.00 – 15.15: Retention in care among HIV-infected women initiating ART during pregnancy

Presenter: Tamsin Phillips [Division of Epidemiology & Biostatistics]

15.15 – 16.00 Tea served in Wolfson Pavillion

16.00 – 17.00 – Keynote Address: Professor William Pick

Introduction: Professor Leslie London

Vote of thanks: Professor Mohamed Jeebhay